UM NEWS TIP

A Japanese scholar who wrote a book on Montana Congresswoman Jeanette Rankin, the only member of Congress to vote against U.S. entry into both world wars, is visiting the University of Montana this summer and is available for interviews. Toyo University English Professor Yunosuke Ohkura is teaching at UM's Toyo English Language and Culture Institute, and will remain in Missoula until Aug. 16. Ohkura's book on Rankin, published in Japanese, reflects his interest in individuals who have cast singular votes. He can be reached in Aber Hall, room 345; 243-1337. For more information on the institute, which brought two Toyo faculty members and 28 students to UM, call Michael Malouf, manager of language institutes, at 243-4603.
